

LONDON SCHOOL OF GUITAR WORKSHOP

Student Code of Conduct

1. I, the undersigned, understand The London School of Guitar Workshop has a ZERO TOLERANCE for drugs or alcohol onsite at the workshop mansion. I understand that students may not consume alcohol anywhere on the workshop property at any time and may not be found to be intoxicated in any way during program hours. I know there is a ZERO TOLERANCE for drugs at The London School of Guitar Workshop.
2. I will respect the workshop property and not intentionally damage or destroy any part of the home or grounds. I will not engage in behavior that could potentially damage or destroy anything within the home or on the workshop grounds.
3. I will respect other people's property at the workshop, including any musical equipment and/or instruments.
4. I will not put myself in harm's way and will protect the physical well being of my fellow students in whatever way I can.
5. I am aware that The London School of Guitar Workshop is fiercely committed to providing the absolute best environment for its students to learn and grow in their craft. I will treat my peers and instructors with the utmost respect. I will support every level of performance by students, instructors, and guest artists, and I am dedicated to accommodating every student's understanding of guitar and songwriting; I also understand there is a ZERO TOLERANCE for teasing or unsupportive attitudes of any kind at The London School of Guitar Workshop.

I agree to this Code of Conduct and understand that my failure to comply with these policies will result in termination from the London School of Guitar Workshop with no refund.
